The objective of the first MeLa research field is to explore the importance of place in European museums for the construction of identities.